MRPC Arkansas Annual Report

Marla Crider distributed the 2011-2012 Annual Report. The report included a Year in Summary, MRPC-Arkansas roster, MRPC-Arkansas minutes, and MRPC-Arkansas legislation. Photo support documents included the Fort Curtis dedication in Helena, the Japanese American Relocation Center Interpretive Program in Rohwer, the Delta Conference Center and Resort in Tillar, the Johnny Cash Boyhood Home Project in Dyess, the John Tushek Building in Lake Village, and Jones Bar-B-Q in Marianna, winner of the 2012 James Beard American Classic Award.

Annual MRPC Conference

The 2012 MRPC Annual Meeting will take place September 27-29, 2012 in Louisville, Kentucky. Marla Crider requested the members let her know who would be attending. A warrant for the registration fee will be issued through the Arkansas Department of Parks & Tourism the first week of September.

Commissioner Terri McCullough announced she has been nominated as the Pilot Pro Tem for the National Mississippi River Parkway Commission. She expressed some concerns about accepting and serving the 2-year term until she had a chance to read the Pilot's handbook. Marla Crider stated she would try to locate the handbook at the ADPT office.

MRPC Arkansas – Budget

Marla Crider stated the annual budget for the Mississippi River Parkway Commission was $168,004.00.

Delta Byways Regional Updates

Dr. Ruth Hawkins announced the Cemetery Trail brochure has been completed and will be distributed soon.

Dr. Hawkins wanted to thank everyone for completing their assignments to update attractions, historic landmarks, and tourism related businesses along the scenic byway for the Corridor Management Plan.

Lakeport Plantation, an Arkansas State University Heritage Site, will be celebrating its 5th anniversary. The plantation will be closed September 6-28 while new exhibits are being installed.

The Historic John Tushek Building in Lake Village underwent renovation and was dedicated in June as the Lake Village City Hall. Listed in the National Register of Historic Places, it will be an asset to the downtown area.

Arkansas State University has received two grants from the National Park Service to install interpretive exhibits at Rohwer War Relocation Center. The exhibits have been installed. Each kiosk contains an audio component. George Takei, who played the character Lieutenant Hikaru Sulu on Star Trek, was interned there as a boy, and narrates the audio portion of the display. The grand opening is planned for spring 2013.

The second annual Johnny Cash Music Festival is scheduled for October 5, 2012 at the Arkansas State University Convocational Center in Jonesboro. This year's lineup includes Rosanne Cash, Willie Nelson, Dierks Bentley, and The Civil Wars.

A third grant has been received from the Arkansas Natural and Cultural Resources Council for the continued restoration of the city offices in Dyess. The interior offices on the first floor have been completed. Restoration of the Johnny Cash boyhood home continues. Members of the Cash family have offered to donate several pieces of furniture that were original to the home.

Resolution

Chairman Joe St. Columbia recommended adopting a resolution to honor former Commissioner Garland Hayes for his leadership and many years of service to the MRPC.

Phyllis Stinson moved to adopt a resolution for former MRPC Commissioner Garland Hayes for his many years of service to the Mississippi River Parkway Commission. Terri Austin McCullough seconded and the motion carried.

Future Meeting Dates

Delta Regional Authority – Delta Leadership Institute

Created by the Delta Regional Authority to foster regional collaboration, the Delta Leadership Institute (DLI) Executive Academy engages leaders to improve the economic and social viability of the Delta. The 252 counties and parishes served by the Delta Regional Authority (DRA) make up one of the most distressed areas of the country, each facing profound challenges in health, education, and infrastructure. Each year, the DRA seeks a diverse group consisting of government professionals, non-profit leaders, business leaders, education professionals, community leaders, economic and business development professionals, and faith-based community leaders.

Participants of DLI’s Executive Academy are given the opportunity to: Continue learning and increase understanding and knowledge of the issues that affect the Delta region; Improve leadership skills and to come together—community leaders from all different places, all walks of life—to share experiences and learn from each other; Develop new ways of thinking that foster regional innovative approaches, collaborations, and partnerships; and take the knowledge and experience gained through DLI and return to our towns and counties ready to better serve the Delta community in their regions and at large. The application period will close on August 31, 2012.

Executive Academy Dates

October 9-12, 2012, St. Louis, MO

December 3-6, 2012, New Orleans, LA

February 23-27, 2013, Washington, DC
